TALKED OF A SECRET TROUBLE.

Married a Month Before to Dollie Smith of No. 2339 Clark Avenue, After an Elopement.

Pierce H. Hullinger, who came to St. Louis two months ago from Dablgren, Ill., fired a bullet through his brain in Forest Park yesterday at 12:30 o'clock.

John Lyman of Lawton avenue heard the shot while on his way home to dinner, and Informed Officer Joseph McKenna of the Mounted Police. McKenna investigated, and at the bottom of a deep ravine found the body of the man, with a builethole in the right temple.

Among his personal effects were found two notes, one addressed to hirs. Lizzie Gress, of No. 313 Clark aconue, saying: Good-by, Gress. Have my things sent to my folks if they want them. Den't let Doily get them. The other bore no address, merely say-

I do not think it necessary to enlighten the public about the cause of my act. May all my curses rest on the head of my wife. Beside his body was a bottle of whisky, part of which be had drank, and a No. 2-caliber revolver, from which one shot had been fired.

en Bred. He was found about 600 yards southwest the Police Substation, and only a short stance from the place where Daniel M. urbhy suded his 50c Sunday. Married in June After Elopement.

Murphy ended his fife Sanday.

Married in June After Elopement.

Hullinger came to St. Louis about two months ago from Dahlaren, Ill., and was staying with his aunt. Mrs. Lizzie Gress, of No. 313 Clark avenue. He remarked to her Tuesday night that he was going to kill himself next day.

Shortly after coming here he met Miss Dolle Smith and, on June 2, persuaded her to elope to Clayton with him, against her parents' wishes. The couple took rooms in a boarding house at No. 211 South Jefferson avenue, where they lived until July 7.

Hullinger then told his wife that he would have to leave her, as he had a secret trouble and his onschance would not let him ruin her life. He also told the girl's mother of this and refused to state what the nature of the trouble was, saying it was momething he could not tell.

Mr. and Mrs. Hullinger separated, the young bride going to live with her mother, Mrs. Elia Smith of No. 2339A Clark avenue.

Before leaving here Hullinger found in

Who shot and killed himself in Forest Park yesterday.

his wife's pocket, it is stated, a note from an old sweetheart of hers, in which the former lover addressed her in endearing terms, expressed great grief at her marriage and sought to make a clandestone ap-For the last three days Hullinger haunt-

Told Wife She Wouldn't Need Divorce

Yesterday morning while Mrs. Hullinger was on her way downtown her husband approached her, but did not speak. She stopped him and said: lerce, I'm going to get a divorce."

"Pierce. I'm going to get a divorce."

"By this time to-morrow you won't need it." he repiled, and, turning, walked away. Three hours later he was found dead.

Mrs. Hullinger seemed to grieve much when informed of Hullinger's death. The admits having received the latter from a former sweetheart, but says she hardly knew the man, and made no effort to answer it, not even knowing his address. She says Hullinger came to her door Monday svening and asked her to come live with him, but she declined because of her parents' wishes.

HAD HIS NEIGHBOR ARRESTED. Hugo Speh Charged With Shooting at John Bredech.

Hugo Sneh, a stonemason, was arrested Tuesday evening by Constable John F. Schaper of Carondelet Township on a charge of shooting at John Bredech and ils son, George. He was taken before fustice Neerper, who admitted him to ball n the sum of $800. His trial will be held

Speh works in the Mount Sinal Cemetery. on the Gravois road, doing the masoury work on monuments. A private road runs through the cemetery and Bredech attempted to drive over it Sunday. There, was a long-standing difference between him and Speh, who ordered his enemy off the and spein, who ordered his enemy our the and and bade him not to attempt to cross that way. A quarrel resulted, but the articipants did not come to blows. Tuesday, Bredech alleges, Speh shot at im and his son while they were plowing their field. He immediately went before

MRS. EDLER SUES STEPMOTHER Wants Accounting of Interests She Says Parents Left.

Jennie E. Edier began two suits in the Circuit Court yesterday against her stepmother, Nina K. White, and others, for an accounting of $5.000 insurance on the life of her mother. Ida Burroughs, and ninety-seven shares of stock in the American Arithmometer Company, alleged to belong to the estate of her father, William S. Burroughs, who died in 1838.

In the suit in regard to the insurance, her brothers, Horace and Mortimer Burroughs, and her sister, Helen C. Burroughs, minors, are made codefendants with her stepmother. The second suit is against the same parties and the American Arithmometer Company. She alleges that her stepmother collected the insurance as her mother's administratrix. Jennie E. Edler began two suits in the Want a good position? Read over the 200 "Help Wasted" ads in to-day's Republic.

BROTHER OF STEEL MAGNATE INSPECTS EAST SIDE PLANTS.

Pierce H. Hullinger, a Young Hus. Joseph E. Schwab and Party of Operators From Pittsburg, Philadelphia and Chicago Visit Plants Owned by Them Across the River-Think Well of the Business Condition in This City-Party Entertained at the Country Club -Remarkable Growth of Steel Industry.

JOSEPH E. SCHWAB Brother of Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, who is in St. Louis inspecting East Side properties, operators, headed by Joseph E. Schwab, a brother of Charles Schwab of the United States Steel Company, spent yesierday in "Wa looked over the rion". ompany which recently incorporated unof $40,000,000

Their coming was unannounced and their

In the Schwab party were: H. K. Gil-ion are the Sargent and Reliance plants, the three plants of the American Company at Chester and Sharon, Pa., and Alliance, O.; the American Steel Foundries Company of Granite City, Ill., and the Leighton-Howard Steel Company of East St. Louis. St. Louis men who accompanied the party on the visit to the East Side were: George B. Leighton, president of the Leighton-Howard Steel Company of East St. Louis; Clurence H. Howard, vice president and ge... ral manager; Ira C. Hubbell, the latter's assistant; George K. Hoblitzelle, secretary and treasurer of the company; J. C. Davis, manager of the Eeast St. Louis company, and Edward F. Goltra, vice president and general manager of the American Steel Foundries Company at leanite City.

Mr. Schwab was met at the Planters by crowd of newspaper men, business asociates and friends. What is the score?" was his first query as a group closed around him. "How about the team that is never beaten-the Pittsburgs?" Having looked at the printed scores he mid to the group; "I have just taken a bath, but I declare the water was frightfully muddy."

Chicago, Pittsburg and Philadelphia steel | "I walked on mud in my tub," rejoined

"We looked over the plants which our St. Louis and on the East Side on a tour of inspection of the properties recently answer to queries from the newspaper men. oquired by the American Steel Foundries and are much pleased. We came here quietly and expect to go away in the mornder the laws of New Jersey with a capital ing. No, we were not invited by the business men to come here, but came of our Their coming was unannounced and their own volition to inspect the two East Side stay was brief, the only entertainment arestablishments. We have nothing to do ranged being a visit to the Country Club last night, where they met several business We are entirely independent. Our field is steel castings, and so we are not even competitors. We will continue to operate In the Schwab party the Sargent the plants here, and will enlarge them. We Steel Company of that city; Daniel Egan, are increasing and developing our bosiness president of the American Steel Castings as fast as possible, and expansion is the Company of Philadelphia; Charles Balley, rule. There will be no shutting down. To president of the Reliance Steel Castings familiarize ourselves with conditions we company of Pittsburg, and S. A. Watson of looked over the ground to see what is

> I am not familiar with the situation in the United States of late. You say that the Steel Trust has turned down orders and permitted them to go abroad? Well, that is quite likely from what I have heard, as all their plants are working to full capacity. The steel business is growing remarkably. I know nothing about your terget much opportunity to observe it. St. Louis looks mighty prosperous, I should

Then Mr. Schwab and his associates returned to the subject of muddy water, and

"And were you at Monte Carlo?" some one ventured to ask. "No, I was not, and, by the way, don't any of you newspaper men say Monte Carlo to my brother," the distinguished visitor said aside. "It isn't advisable to mention that place to him any more." The Leighton-Howard plant employe 1,400 men, and the American Steel Foun dries plant employs 2,300. It is likely that these forces will be greatly augmented. and that the suburban population of St. Louis will be substantially increased.

SALOONKEEPER'S SON NOW A PREACHER

The Reverend Edward Rinkel Tells How He Became Disgusted With the Liquor Business.

ed three generations of saloonkeepers and who, himself, was raised from childhood behind a bar, could be converted to the church beliefs and practice seems very improbable, but persons who attend the tent prayer meeting in Oxford place Monday night heard the experience of such a man, The Reverend Edward Rinkel, pastor of the Oak Hill M. E. Church, South, whose father for many years conducted Rinkel's Grove on Easton avenue, near Hamilton, told the story of his extraordinary career in the presence of a great gathering at the tent meeting after he had been called upon to testify as to his faith in God. His father being a sulconkeoper, Edward knew no other training until he was 15 years old than that which he received in the barroom. Being thus thrown among rough companions he became wayward and ran away from the parental roof to shift for himself while very young.

for himself while very young.

"Before I was 15 1 had dished out enough beer and whisky over my father's bar to float a steamboat, and I was so thoroughly soaked with the ilquor myself that a smelled like a distillery," said he, in giving his testimony.

After leaving home he went to Tennessee, and there fell in with a family of Methodists who did their worshiping at home. He was willing to try Christianity, so he began praying. That was twenty years ago, said he.

After several years spent with his religious benefactors in Tennessee, young Rinkel returned to St. Louis, and for a time attended the services of the Centenary Church at Sixteenth and Pine streets, of which the late Reverend Joseph W. Lewis was pastor.

was pastor.

With sixty others he arese one night for prayer and declared his intention to become a worker for the church. Later he entered Central College at Fayette, Mo., and when 21 years old he was ordained a deacon and admitted to the Southeast Conference. Two years later he became an elder, and was assigned to the Oak Hill Church, where he are the conference in the still pastor.

is still pastor.

"My father, who died wealthy, cut me off in his will with a dollar because I would not give up preaching," said the Reverend Mr. Rinkel. Mr. Rinkel.

Rinkel's saloon and garden, on Easton avenue, is still in existence, and is being conducted by Adolph Rinkel, a younger brother of Edward.

Whose antecedents represent three generations of saloonkeepers, and who, him-self, was converted to the church after being raised from childhood behind the

YOUTH DRANK PARIS GREEN.

Trouble With Brother Caused Julius Schaefer to Attempt Suicide.

Julius Schaefer, a tobacco worker, living with his parents at No. 1726 South Eleventh street, took Paris green last night while in street, took Paris green last night while in company with his sweetheart, Rosie Pokorny, at her home in the rear of No. 202 Geyer avenue. At the City Hospital Schaefer said he took the poison because of some trouble he had earlier in the evening with his brother, Herman. Schaefer's condition is not serious.

Schaefer went to the Porkorny house early in the evening and appeared to be in a despondent mood. As he was about to leave he went into the front room of the house, after hidding the girl farewell, and drank the poison from a bottle.

President Kimball in St. Louis. President C. E. Kimball of the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis arrived in St. Louis last night from New York and registered at the Southern. With him were James Duncan of Alton, R. Blaisdel, auditor, Springfield; W. E. Kelen, Jacksonville; C. Millard, general manager, Springfield.

DINNER FOR PIERRE CLAUTICE: CLUB WOMEN ARE ENTERTAINED.

Mr. Pierre Ciautice was the guest of honor at a small al fresco dinner given by Mrs. J. L. D. Morrison on Tuesday evening at the Cherokee Garden. Only intimate friends of Mr. Clautice were invited, and the awais was the guest of the control of th the affair was wholly informal. Last even-ing Mr. Clautice departed for Charleve'x, where he will spend a fortnight, then going. East to visit Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Walker at their Kennebuckport cottage.

MRS. BENTZ ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. A. P. Bentz of No. 2519 South Broad-way entertained her club friends Tuesday way entertained her club friends Tuesday afternoon and evening in honor of her thir-teenth wedding anniversary. The rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and ferna. At 5 o'clock a repast was served, after At 5 o'clock a repust was served, after which the evening was spent in music and dancing. Among those present were: Messieurs and Mesdam

Phil Kruz, H. Bentz, J. Hahn, G. H. Krebs, C. Buettner, H. Weyland, Al H. Warner.

J. Lynch.
C. Lutz.
A. Meyer.
A. P. Bentz.
C. Groessler. Edna Bentz. Lona Goessler.
Emma Goessler. Margaret Anderson.
The out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. Anderson of Louisville, Ey., and Miss Rosalle Schwartz of Alton, Ill.

HAY RIDE FOR ST. LOUIS VISITORS. A moonlight hay ride was given on Tuesday evening by the Misses Joplin of Eureka. Several St. Louis young persons were among the guests, who included the following:

Misses-Cornelia Clark, Cathryne Clark, Mary Joplin, Jessie Bartow, Jossie Joplin, dessieurs Richard McClure, Emmet Crow. William Joplin, Pearl Krause, Blanche Monroe, Ida McClure, Isabel Crow, Lucy Sebastian. Wayman Joplin, Sam Birch.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Higginbotham and their daughter, Miss Anna Higginbotham, sailed for Europe yesterday on the Teu-

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Westmeyer of the South Side departed yesterday for Wash-ington, D. C., and the Long Island resorts. They expect to sail on July 29 for Europe.

Plans to Make an Equitable Apportionment.

BE REARRANGED.

CITY WARDS WILL

EAST SIDE NEWS.

esa Gutman, will start to-day for a trip to New York, to be gone two weeks.

The Misses Hilds and Lotts Werner of the South Side and Miss Clara Siesle of the West End have departed for St. Paul. Mrs. R. H. Welch of No. 4012 Morgan street, accompanied by her daughter, Mics Laura Welch, will go this evening to At-lantic City to remain until October L.

Mrs. E. H. Schmidt of Fermison, Mo., with her son, Charles Rivers, and daugh-ter, Miss Alite Rivers, have gone for a two weeks' visit and river trip to Poducah, Ky

Mrs. C. F. Cost and her con, Herbert Cost, are summering at Mackinge, Cost will join them next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Nagel are enter-taining Miss Roach of St. Louis at their Mackinac cottage on the Lake Shore drive

News of the marriage of Miss Cecilia M. Becke of the South Side to Mr. Charles W. Hackemeier on June II, has been received by their friends with surprise. They are at home at No. 222 Sullivan avenue. SOCIETY NEWS FROM WEBSTER. Herbert Baker gave an informal dance Saturday night. Those present were Misses Ruth Stillman, Francez Dewsen, Marian Bettis, Myrtle Salveter, Cynthian Pike, Mary and Florence Quaries, Cherry Ma-ginnis, Edith Baker and Beulth Johnson of St. Louis; Messas, James Bettis, Jr., Justin Kendrick, Eugene Sallsbury, Herbert Fidier, Fred Howe, Henry Chase and Lyman War-ren.

Miss Frances Dawson gave a house party Monday and Treesing to infreen young la-dies. Picnic supper was served out of doors, and dancing and various games were induiged. Those present were Misses Mar-garet Hart, Florence and Mary Quarles, Constance and Agnes Brooke, Dorothy Posegate and Ruth Silliman of St. Louis. Myrtle Salveter, Cynthian Pike, Marion Bettis, Edith Baker, Cherry Maginnis, Jen-sie Nace, Genevieve Anderson and Saille Gruet.

Miss Carrie Chase gave a lawn party Tuesday, at which some eighty guests were present. Japanese lanterns were strung about the lawns and verandas and tarpou-Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Steer and their family have taken a cottage at Shelter Island for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leahy will go East in a few days to get the house in readiness, while Mrs. Steer expects to join them in a week.

Doctor and Mrs. J. J. Lawrence of New York, formerly of St. Louis; L. O. Branch, John Henderson and R. A. Torrey, the last three of St. Louis, are recent arrivals at Narragansett.

Muss. Lydia, Zimmarwana of Lake Univ. Miss Lydia Zimmermann of Lake View, Chicago, who recently returned from an extensive European trip, is spending a few weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. O. A. Immenhausen, No. 2325 Eads avenue. Miss Zimmermann contemplates departing for the Michigan resorts in a short time. She PRETTY ST. LOUIS WOMEN AT THE RESORTS.

MISS MAUDE NIEDRINGHAUS,

Who is now at the fashionable resort for St. Louis people on Narragansett Bay, Jamestown, R. I. The Niedringhaus cottage is one of the pleasantest on Shoreby Hill, and is already a center for gayety among the young people.

Mics Niedringhaus, who is prepared to spend all season at Jamestown, has taken with her many frocks that will appear at Newport and Jamestown functions and are destined to call forth much admiration and envy from her feminine friends. She is one of St. Louis's best-dressed girls, with the art of silways knowing what to wear and when to wear it.

married immediately afterwards by Justice of the Peace Ward.

Jerseyville Notes. Jerseyville Notes.

-The funeral of Martin Finningan of Grafton took place yesterday morning from St. Patrick's Church in Grafton, the pastor, the Reverend Father C. S. Bell, officiating. The body was brought to Jerseyville on the morning train over the thicage, Peeria and St. Louis Railroad, and the burial was in St. Francis Xavler's Cemetery, The death of Mr. Fiannigan occurred on Tuesday marning.

-The Jerseyville Commercial Club has elected J. M. Page, president, Harry B. Hilli first vice president, George M. Eaton second vice president, John Stone secretary, George M. Seago Ireasurer.

-Clarence V. Reddish, the valedictorian of the treasurer.

-Charence V. Reddish, the valedictorian of the senior class at the Jerseyville High School in June, has accepted a position in the collections department or the National Bank of Commerce, in St. Louis.

—The Jerseyville Art Circle met last evening with Miss Elizabeth Brokamp. Among the papers were: "Short Sketches of Atalanta and Hercules," Mrs. Cone: "Three Fates," Miss Wyckoff, "Ariadne, Euterpe," Mrs. Warren; "Orpheus and Euryalice, Persous," Miss Elizabeth Eaton. The club will discontinue the Weekly meetings until September.

—The funeral of Fred Fraces, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fracer of Otterville, took place yesterday afternoon from the Fracer home. The Reverend J. W. Tenrey officiated, and the buriel was in the Otterville Cemetary.

—Some of the business men of Jerseyville are

Some of the upaness advocating the holding of a street fair the last advocating the holding of a street fair the last advocating the holding of a street fair the last week in August.

The configuration of the Union Church at Fleidon will give an loc-cream social on Saturday evening.

An afficial announcement has been made at Jerseyville that work in the new Calcago and Alton station would be started within fifteen days. Superintendent Corbett and Traveling August the platform and shook hands with the naval officer, turning the affair into an informal reception.

At 4 o'clock an interesting address was delivered to meet a configuration of the principal address before the Ministerial Conference this term was delivered structure. Structure.

The members of the congregation of the German Evangelical Church at Jerseyville will hold their annual picuic to-day. The feativities will close with a featival this evening.

-William Piggott is in charge of the rural free mail delivery route out of Jerseyville, in the absence of Eimer Rowray, who is taking a vacation.

Atom.

-The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Chris-ian Church at Jerseyville will give an ice-cream octal this evening at the residence of J. P. Paristy. Christy.

—Attorney E. J. Vaughn of Jerseyville de-parted yesterday for Denver, Colo., to take depo-sitions in the suit in the assumpst of T. S. Chapman, executor of the estate of Judge Pron-its D. Cheney versus C. P. Cheney. The case will be heard in the September term of the Jersy County Circuit Court.

LANDLORDS NOT IN COMBINE.

Reported Consolidation of St. Louis Hotels Is Denied.

Following the successful consolidation of leading restaurants in St. Louis, the story has been started that the three leading hotels will be similarly combined. The Fianters, the Southern and the Lindell and possibly the St. Nicholas are mentioned in this connection.

The managers of the Planters, Southern and Lindell deny emphatically that there is a deal on. Colonel Moses C. Wetmore denied positively yesterday that such a thing has been mentioned to him or that he had ever heard the story.

Two hundred and eighteen rooms are advertised in The Republic "Rooms for columns to-day. Read them over.

TELEGRAPH NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD. CAPE TOWN-Ex-President Steyn of the former Orange Free State, Mrs. Steyn and two doctors have salled for Europe on the steamer Carisbrook Castle. Mr. Steyn Is suffering from enteric fever.

PERTH, WEST AUSTRALIA—Sir Arthur Lawley, Governor of Western Australia, has accepted the Lieutenant Governorship of the Transvani colony. He starts for South Africa August 5.

PHOT GROVE, MO.-Doctor W. Barnes of Pilot Grove has been appointed hissician to the Cooper County Poor Farm by the County Court.

MANILA -General Chaffee, who was recently relieved from his duties as Military Governor, will start for home by way of sucz. probably on the United States trans-ort McCiellan, which is due at New York early in December.

THE HAGUE-Queen Wilhelmina, who has been convalencing at Castle Schi berg, near the Rhine, is so far restor-health that she will return home Satu with her husband.

BAINBRIDGE, COLO.—L. A. Scott, allas "Pug" Ryan, a notorious desperado of Colorado and the Northwest, was found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Ernest Conrad, an officer, about three years

HARRISBURG, II.I.—A Republican Convention will be held at Shawneetown on Friday, August 8, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various county offices in Gallatin County. HARRISBURG, H.L.-An election will be held in Harrisburg Township on Saturday, July 19, for the purpose of voting on the proposition of issuing $18,000 of 5 per cent bonds to build a township high school building.

MANILA.—Cholera is still spreading in the Provinces. The provincial totals are 14.567 cases and 19.507 deaths. Manila aver-ages forty cases daily.

MANILA.—A hundred Ladrones, armed with rifles and bolos, attacked and defeated eight of the constabulary near San Mateo. Manila Province. The losses of the constabulary were one man wounded and five men missing.

CHARLESTON, S. C.—Sinko Hatto, a wealthy Japanese now residing in New York, has been appointed by his Government to make a thorough study of tea growing conditions in South Carolina.

Want a good position? Read over the 202 'Help Wanted" ads in to-day's Republic.

COUNCIL OF WOMEN FEATURE FOR TO-DAY.

Crowds of Visitors Are Attracted to the Piasa Chautauqua Meetings.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Chautauqua, Ill., July 16 .- Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson, "the hero of the Merrimac," was the principal lecturer today at the Piasa Chautauqua, and visitors from every part of the State came to hear him. The lecture of Captain Hobson was given this afternoon in the Tabernacle. After being introduced by the Reverend Doctor Jay A. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Jerseyville, he spoke for nearly two Some of the business men of Jerseyville are hours on "The American Navy; Its Tradi-vocating the holding of a street fair the last tions and Victories." Following the lecture ville, on "The Church and the Saloon Traf-fic." This evening the last of a series of three moving-picture entertainments was given in the Tabernacie by Bert Kimbali of Andrew Steed, a capitalist of Medora, Ill., was an interested listener at the lecture of Captain Hobson. R. W. Stutsman of Springfield, Ill., traveling freight and passenger agent for the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis Railroad, was a visitor.

Representative Homer J. Tice of Green-Representative Homer J. Tice of Greenview, Ill., president of Old Salem Chautanqua, and the Reverend George F. Turner of Petersburg. Ill., secretary of Old Salem, were guests to-day of Colonel W. H. Fulkerson, president of Plasa Chautauqua.

William Madison of Springfield, chief of the car department of the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis Railroad, was a member of the party of railroad officials that spent the day at Chautauqua.

A party of prominent residents of Kilbourne, Ill., spent the day here. The party included S. A. Conklin, Earl Underbrush and Misses Grace Pierce and Gertrude Wright.

Wright.

included S. A. Conklin, Earl Underbrush and Misses Grace Pierce and Gertrude Wright.

Among the St. Louisans who registered at the Piasa Spring Hotel were Mrs. Monahan, William H. Clark, H. J. Ulrich, P. F. VanderLippe and Mrs. VanderLippe, R. Goerner and family, Clayton Miller, Mrs. A. J. Miller, Miss Grace L. Hickman, Mrs. Isabelle Clarkson, Misses Marie and Elizabeth A. Moran, Miss Olive A. Smith and C. P. Finley.

A. W. Cross, president of the National Bank of Jerseyville and a former president of the Piasa Chautauqua, was one of the prominent visitors to-day.

Atturney I. D. Snedeker and Mrs. Snedeker of Jerseyville were the guests to-day of Manager W. M. Sauvage of the Temple Theater at Alton and Mrs. Sauvage, who are spending the season at the Piasa Spring Hotel.

Among the guests at the Piasa Spring Hotel.

Among the guests at the Piasa Spring Hotel were H. S. Dorsey of Alton, J. B. Panchard of Brighton, Ill.; Mrs. J. A. Barnett and Mrs. Mary E. Barnett of Edwardsville, K. C. Haagen of Alton, R. Rodgers of Kansas City, Mo.; Mrs. Mary E. Miller of Irving, Ill.; E. C. Paul and Miss Mae Paul of Alton, J. N. Beaty and Mrs. J. N. Beaty of Jerseyville, Miss Carrie G. Metcalfe of Piasa, Ill.; Mrs. W. P. Richards and Miss Bernice Richards of Jerseyville, H. M. Carr of Alton, P. H. Sanders of Medora, Ill.; Miss Mamie Bauer of Alton, Miss Louise Richards of Medora, Ill.; E. H. Easterly and Mrs. Easterly of Grafton, Ill., William Parson and Mrs. Parson of Sparta, Ill. Mrs. F. W. Olin of Alton entertained Mrs. A. Lent of Cleveland, O., and Miss Julia Buckmaster of Alton at dinner at the Piasa Spring Hotel.

Mrs. A. Lent of Cleveland, O., and Miss Florence Jackson of the Western Milltary

Julia Buckmaster of Alton at dinner at the Piasa Spring Hotel.

Mrs. A. M. Jackson and daughter, Miss Florence Jackson, of the Western Military Academy at Upper Alton, were visitors this atternoon.

Among the interesting numbers on the programme to-morrow will be a "Woman's Council." conducted by Mrs. William H. Cartwright of Upper Alton. Rosani, the juggler, will be the principal attraction on the evening programme.

A. L. Broadway of Palmyra, Ill., and E. G. Hollard of Oakford, Ill., two well-known agents for the C. P. & St. L. R. R. were here to-day.

ngents for the C. P. & St. L. R. R. Weise here to-day.
J. W. Becker, editor of the Jerseyville Republican, and Postmaster of that city, with Mrs. Becker, were visitors to-day. Mayor J. M. Allen of Grafton, Ill., was here to-day with a party of friends. Doctor T. L. Foulds, Miss Mamie Crowe, Mrs. G. F. Crowe, Mrs. E. M. Bowman, Mrs. Jacob Wead and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Daniels of Hotel Madison, were among the prominent Altonians here to-day.

Want a good position? Read over the 203 "Help Wanted" ads in to-day's Republic.

School Treasurers File Bonds. Five township school treasurers filed their official bonds with County Recorder Charles Haefele at Beileville yesterday. They were:

were:
Joseph Lepage, township 2 north range 3 west;
bond, 199,000; sureties, Paul W. Abt and Thomas L. Fekete.
Henry Knewitz, township 3 south, range 7 west;
bond, 28,000; surities, Gerhardt Knewitz and Nich Steinart.
Charles Karch, township 1 south, range 5 west; bond, 10,000; surities, Fred A. Kunze, Adolph Stein, Peter Seipert.
L. G. Darmstatter, township 2 south, range 7 west; bond, 115,000; surities, John Schaller, Louis Nuernberger, Fred Alheim.
Walter Eymann, township 1 north, range 2 west; bond, 250,000; surities, Isaac R. Eyman and
C. G. Rayhill.

ording to population, but this plan does not seem to be in much favor. FUNERAL OF THE "DINKIES." Retirement of Old Cars to Be Appro-printely Observed. General Manager E. C. Haynes of the East St. Louis and Suburban Electric Railway Company stated yesterday that five of the old "dinkies" would be placed in the funeral procession on Saturday morning. Mr. Haynes yesterday appointed H. M. Brown, one of the officials of the company, to see that the cars were draped in black. Arrangements have been made for a brass band, which will be piaced on the big work car of the company and will head the procession, playing all of the funeral dirges in its reperiors. The procession will be escorted by two of the handsome new cars of the road, and General Superintendent J. M. Bramiette will be motorman and Me. Bramlette will be motorman and Mr.

FeII From a Scaffold.

George Enfield of No. 2012 Cleveland avenue and Doc Williams of No. 200 Broadway, East St. Louis, were injured by the collapse of a scaffolding at the Pittsburg Reduction Company's plant, on the outskirts of East St. Louis, yesterday morning. The men were at work on the scaffolding and fell twenty feet. They were taken in Benner-Brichler's ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital, where their injuries were dressed, after which they were removed to their homes. Neither is seriously hurt.

Enst St. Louis Items.

Belleville News Notes.

casion.

-Miss Lenisa A. Boyakin of Belleville has been reappointed teacher at Cabokia.

-Jack Maul fell while in the engine-room at his mine, near Belleville, yesterday. A rib on his right side was broken. his right side was broken.

-White delivering letters resterday Mail Carrier Frank Stark of Belleville was attacked by a small dog and badly bitten on the leg.

-William Long, a miner, employed at the Boyal mine, bear Belleville, severed an artery in his wrist yesterday morning.

-Professor Ludwig Carl, director of the Belleville Liederkrant Society, celebrated the twenty-eighth anniversary of his birth yesterday.

-Mrs. Margaretha Sindel once Hagen) died at her home on Richland street yesterday morning. She was It years old, and the widow of John Sindel. She leaves four children—three boys and a sirt, all married. The funeral will take place to mornow morning, the burial being in Green Mount Cemetery.

-The Retail Merchants' Association of Bella.

BIRTHDAY PRESENT FOR FREDDY RODGERS

Municipal Authorities Discussing Judge Perrin Remits Fine and Jail Sentence Imposed for Petit Larceny.

Municipal authorities of East St. Louis | Freddy Rodgers was 12 years old yesterm of the re- day, and as a birthday present County city in consequence of the annexation of and a sentence of ten days in tall which Winstanley Park and other contiguous ter- he had imposed on the little fellow on a ritory this year. This territory must have charge of petit larceny. In return Freddy representation in the City Council, and the made a solemn promise to be good and stay residents must have an opportunity to vote, away from companions who might lead nim As yet no polling places have been fixed into evil.

for them, and the Board of Election Com- Freedy was arrested in East St. Louis missioners has asked the city officials to several weeks ago on a charge of breaking carrange the wards, or furnish the lines into a freight car. This crime is burglary for the extension of the old wards, so as to and larceny and the punishment is severe take in the new territory. It is expected State Attorney James A. Farmer talked that the subject will come up at the next meeting of the City Council.

With the little fellow after his arrest and came to the conclusion that the had been led A dozen plans have been presented look- into evil by bad companions. When the ing to the solution of the problem of the case was called before Judge Perrin yesterrearrangement, but all have more or less flaws. One plan which seems to meet with some approval is to combine the First Ward, which is that part of East St. Louis known as the Island, with Whicky Chute, which is now a precinct in the Seventh Ward. This would give the Seventh Ward room for additional territory, and the discs.

perfect frankness. When asked his age he replied that he was 12 years old.

"To-day is my birthiday," he declared. Judge Perrin imposed a fine of $1 and a sentence of ten days in jail said then, turning to the boy, told him what the officers of the law had done for him in reducing his sentence, and asked him if he would promise to keep away from the companions who had caused him all his trouble. Freddy promised, while tears rau down his cheeks. Judge Perrin then turned to the boy's mother, who was in the courtroom, and told her to take her son home, and that he would stay the fine and sentence on his good behavior and as a birthday present. coom for additional territory, and the ilnes of the other wards could be extended, it is thought, to meet the present needs. Still another plan is to redistrict the city ac-

Real Estate Transfers.

Members of the Belleville Lodge of Elks and their laddes will go to Freeburg this evening to give the members of the order there a social. A bruse hand will be taken along, and arrangements have been made for a banquet. A special train has been chartered for the occasion.

Mount Cemetery.

-The Retail Merchants' Association of Believille enjoyed a banquet last evening.

-Doctor E. A. Woelk of Belleville was at Precburg restreday.

-The village of Swansea has appropriated $1.30 for a fire department.

Mrs. H. A. Hartnagel and daughter, Miss Oille, departed yesterday for a visit of a week at Plass.

Real eaunte transfers filed for record with County Recorder Charles Haefele at Belleville yesterday were:

ville yesterday were:

Martin Ammel to Sarah Starkey, part of southwest quarter, section 7, townsomp 1, north 8, warranty deed, 31.

Sarah Starkey to Maria & Christ, same property, warranty deed, 42,000.

H. C. Lake, by Sheriff, to Mary Flannery, lot 8, block 1, Harris place; Sheriff a deed, 5900.

A. H. Bachmann and wife to W. H. Stone, part of bet 22. Piora and Lebanca; quitclaim deed, 470.

L. J. Scherer and wife to Ida Kaemper, lot 41 and part of lot 42, block 12, Denversing; warranty deed, 4700.

Carr Smith and wife to East St. Louis Rall-way Company, right-of-way through lot 12, block 4, Lansdowne subdivision, 8500.

J. W. Brown, by adjantariatrix, to H. J. Eggmann, undivided half interest, lots 7 and 8, block 18, Winstaniey Park, administrator's deed, $250.

H. J. Eggmann and wife to Mahala C. Brown, E250.
H. J. Ezsmann and wife to Mahala C. Brown, same property quite him deed, II.
Mahain is town to H. A. Golay, lot 8, as shove—warranty deed, M.D.
A. C. Siewart et al. to E. St. Louis T. & S.
Lank truster, lots 61, 62 and part of 62, block 4, accord St. Clair subdivision; warranty deed, 182, 606. Oct. J. T. Donovan to Leuisa S. Brockmyyer, lot 21, block 9, Dewey; warranty deed, Elsi, Mich Wantter to Jul Harman, lots 1, 2 and 12, Wachter first addition of Fallon; warranty deed, East St. Louis Hems.

A petition is being circulated by the residents in the vicinity of Howe avenue and the Hock road. East St. Louis, requesting Postmaster Hemry F. Eader to place a mall box at the corner of Howe avenue and Rock road.

Beginning this morning, the Broadway cars in East St. Louis will all run to the Eads bridge. Another car will be added to the service.

—East St. Louis Elies are preparing for a big celebration on Saturday evening. It is said that twenty-five candidates will be infilinted. Horn's first addition to Fiors; warranty deed, 1988.

L. Hallock, trustee, et al. to T. E. Evans, lot 13, block 2. Wheeler place, East St. Louis; warranty deed, 1922.

Charles and the Saum to Clem Jones, part lot 3, block 3. That St. Louis; warranty deed, 1930.

P. M. Murphy and wife to Thomas McGrath, lot 51, block 3. Claremont; warranty deed, 1930.

A. A. McBrien to C. A. Hallingsworth, part lot 4, Abt subdivision, lot 192, Aster tract; warranty deed, 18,500.

J. R. Sutter and wife to L. E. Kasmpey, lot 11 and part of 19 and 12, block 92, Denversible; warranty deed, 18,000.

Marriage Licenses Issued. Marriage licenses issued in Belleville yes-Carl Redmann, 21, Alton, and Maud Ross, 22, Belleville. Stephen C. Jennings, 25, New York, and Anna A Kelley, 29, St. Louis.

Wim. Stuart, 25, Belleville, and Laura Mulconnety, 29 Helleville.

Walter Karrer, 30, St. Louis, and Grace Lamb, 29, Louis, 21, Lather Walker, 29, Mariesa, and Cora Dell Histong, 25, Mariesa, 14, Mariesa, 25, Mariesa, 26, Mariesa, 27, Mariesa, 27, Mariesa, 28, Mariesa, 21, Louis, 21, Mariesa, 21, Louis, 21, Mariesa, 21, Mari

Redman Looked Young. Charles Redman of Alton and Miss Maude Ross of No. 613 South Jackson street, Belleville, were refused when they applied for a marriage license at the County Clerk's office at Belleville yesterday because Redman did not look to be of age. He got his mother to accompany him to the marriage license office and on her word the license was lesued. The couple were